

Dear Friends of FLIPANY,

As I review all that FLIPANY has accomplished this past year, I am proud beyond measure.

FLIPANY has increased its outreach of Healthy Meals for Kids, serving daily nutrition to more kids than ever before, and this year we launched Healthy Meals for Seniors in Broward and Palm Beach Counties.

FLIPANY's award-winning Healthy Meals team supervised delivery of over 2 million tasty and nutritious meals to those in need while building business for local caterers and farmers in the process.

FLIPANY took part in creating new mini-pitches in Miami-Dade County and mentored 1,200 kids throughout South Florida with the U.S. Soccer Foundation's Soccer for Success program.

FLIPANY engaged 50,000 kids in life-changing nutrition education, and 1,700 kids completed a six-week cooking class--knowledge they share with families and friends.

Underneath these impressive numbers are individual people who each changed their lives for the better thanks to FLIPANY programs delivering consistent, high-quality nutrition, nutrition education, food skills, and mentored physical activity.

To illustrate that point, listen to FLIPANY Cooking Instructor Jaheim Lodge talk about how FLIPANY ignited his passion for cooking as a youngster and opened the doors to his culinary career.

Friends, FLIPANY is boosting thousands of lives in our communities every day of the week. While I am proud of all we do, I have to explain the larger landscape of need in South Florida and how your donations govern our outreach and growth.

I estimate that FLIPANY currently serves the needs of fewer than 10% of the hungry kids in South Florida. That's a big mountain of unmet need.

FLIPANY has the most effective programming and the most efficient administration systems of any organization in the Community Health sector. FLIPANY has the skill and knowledge to tackle the entire mountain of need in our community; we just lack the number of trained staff to do it. I'd like a hundred more Jaheims, please!

FLIPANY ensures sustainability and a modest expansion of all our programs every year through fundraising, contracts, and grants. Donors like yourself control how much more of the mountain of need FLIPANY can take on. Together, we are doing an amazing job of building health equity in our region. Together, we can conquer mountains.

In Deepest Gratitude,

Lynne Kunins
